A word from our C.E.O.

Mr Tibor VASS, retired French Foreign Legion

The LPN Group was created by a consortium of ex French Foreign Legion Paratrooper Commandos and is a French-based International Security, Operational Support and Consulting group enabling you to rely on outsourced or subcontracted security services and security project management support and solutions in a cost effective, professional and confidential environment.

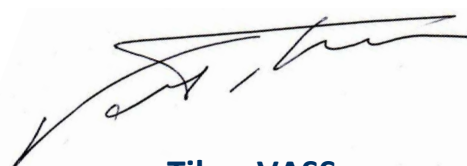

The LPN Group is comprised of three distinct companies: LPN Security Services, LPN Close Protection and LPN Consulting, enabling States, Institutions, NGOs and private structures and individuals to benefit from a spectrum of high-quality and dynamic security solutions and counselling services in various targeted markets around the globe (such as French speaking Western, Northern and Central Africa) in a structured, professional and fully discreet manner.

In a modern world where non-traditional threats have increased and become resilient, The LPN Group has become a true force of proposition in terms of providing adequate human resources, security solutions and counselling thanks to its know-how and expertise.

Our objective is to supply you with a professional, experienced and rigorous manpower to accompany you in your already existing activities as well as towards French speaking African markets and theatres of operations by providing you with the needed intelligence, pre-deployment assessments, local knowledge, extraction points and strategies, helping you dominated cultural and language barriers in very specific areas and have you benefit from our full expertise in the region.

We are looking forward to be hearing from you and stay at your full disposal to answer your every question. Please note that we have DUNS and NCage numbers for all our companies.

Yours Faithfully,

Tibor VASS

Biography

Mr VASS served for 10 years in the French Foreign Legion within the 2nd Foreign Paratrooper Regiment. He then became a Team Leader within the French Foreign Legion Paratrooper Commando Group. He received in 2006 from the hands of the French Chief of Staff Jean-Louis GEORGELIN and the Central African Republic's President François BOZIZE the French Military Valour Medal for his actions while under fire.

Following his departure from the French Armed Forces, Mr VASS decided to follow his career within the private sector as an Independent Security Consultant and Manager for multiple French and Foreign Defence Contractors and Private Security Companies in theatres of operations across Europe and French speaking Western and Central Africa.

By the end of 2008, he founded The LPN Group. His objective was to gather within one organization a full spectrum of complementary skills and security experts, passing on his skills and acquired expertise for the benefit of others.
